

HVAC Service Technician with Residential/Light Commercial experience
Location: Houston, Texas

Prefer NATE certified and Texas state certified technician that has the ability to diagnose and repair air cooled HVAC systems up to 25 tons. Candidate must have at least five years experience in the HVAC industry. Technician will provide his own hand tools as appropriate with his position. Must have good communication skills and be willing to provide sales solutions for our customers as they arise. Have a working knowledge of electronic wiring diagrams, schematics and architectural/mechanical blueprints. Adhere to all local, state and federal building codes practices and regulations. Possess EPA Refrigerant Handling Certification cards. Possess a valid Texas Drivers License. Communicate in a professional manner with co-employees, subcontractors and customers. Complete accurate written job tickets and related memorandum. Be aware of and remain responsible for his or her truck inventory. Attend company meetings and all pertinent company functions as required.